"September: A Month of Learning, Culture, and Celebration"

Dear Parents, Teachers, and Students,

September has been a month brimming with learning, celebration, and togetherness. Our young learners enthusiastically participated in a variety of activities, from cultural events like Onam and Garba to academic milestones such as the Term I/Half-Yearly Examinations. Each event reflected our school's commitment to nurturing not just intellect but also creativity, discipline, and respect for culture.

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to our dedicated teachers and supportive parents who continually encourage our students to excel. The joyous spirit and active participation of our students have made every event memorable. Let us continue to uphold the values of unity, gratitude, and excellence as we move forward into the next term.

Warm regards,
Mrs. Shweta Shrivastava

Unity in Diversity: Onam Celebration Brings Kerala Alive

The festival of Onam was celebrated with great enthusiasm and cultural vibrancy by our little learners.

Students came dressed in beautiful traditional Kerala attire, filling the campus with joy and color.

The event began with a fancy dress competition, where children represented various elements of Kerala's heritage.

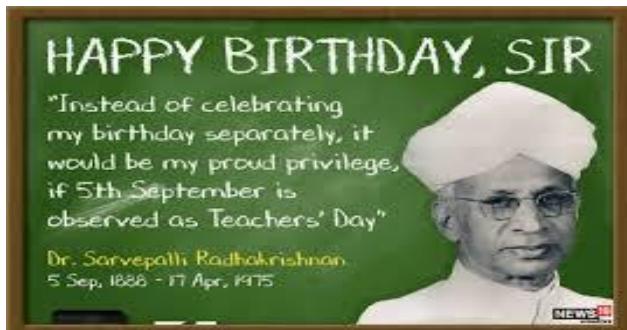

A special workshop on Kerala's food, spices, and attire was conducted to give children hands-on learning experiences about the state's traditions. Teachers beautifully explained the significance of each element. The celebration truly reflected India's cultural diversity and encouraged students to appreciate the unity that lies within it.

Celebrating Our Mentors: A Joyful Teachers' Day

Teachers' Day was celebrated with immense enthusiasm, love, and respect. The students organized a heartwarming program to express their gratitude towards their mentors who guide them every day. The day began with a special assembly where students delivered speeches and poems in praise of their teachers.

Fun-filled games and activities were organized by the senior students, followed by a delightful cake-cutting ceremony. Laughter, joy, and appreciation filled the air as teachers felt truly cherished for their hard work and dedication. The celebration reminded everyone that teaching is not just a profession but a lifelong mission to inspire and shape young minds. It was indeed a day of smiles, gratitude, and beautiful memories.

Striving for Success: Term I / Half-Yearly Exams Conducted

9th September 2025 | Classes: III to XI

The Term I/Half-Yearly Examinations were conducted successfully and smoothly across classes 3 to 11. Students approached their exams with dedication and discipline, reflecting their sincere efforts throughout the term. Teachers ensured a fair and organized examination environment, motivating students to perform to the best of their abilities.

The successful completion of the exams was a testimony to the teamwork of teachers, students, and parents. Evaluations were completed on time, and preparations began for result discussions during the upcoming PTM. The school applauds the perseverance of students and wishes them continued success in their academic journey.

Hindi Diwas: Celebrating the Beauty of Our National Language

The school proudly celebrated Hindi Diwas to honor our national language and its cultural significance. The event began with a special assembly featuring poems, speeches, and songs that highlighted the importance of Hindi in uniting our nation. Students from various classes participated with great enthusiasm.

The tiny tots from LKG A to 2nd took part in a vibrant fancy dress competition, dressed as famous Hindi writers, poets, and characters from literature. The celebration helped students understand the richness of the Hindi language and encouraged them to use it with pride. It was a day that reminded everyone of the beauty, simplicity, and power of our mother tongue.

Pretty in Pink: Little Learners Celebrate Pink Day

13th September 2025 | Classes: LKG J to 2nd

The school turned into a world of pink on Pink Day, celebrated with much joy and enthusiasm by our youngest learners. The children looked adorable in different shades of pink — from light blush to bright fuchsia — symbolizing love, kindness, and innocence.

The day featured a fancy dress show, where children dressed as flowers, fruits, and fairytale characters, spreading cheer and excitement. Teachers organized fun activities like coloring, storytelling, and dance performances that revolved around the color pink. The celebration helped children identify colors while promoting creativity and confidence. It was a delightful day filled with laughter, learning, and color!

Building Bonds: Montessori PTM Strengthens Communication

26th September 2025 | Montessori Section

The Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM) for the Montessori section was held to discuss each child's overall growth and development. Parents and teachers engaged in meaningful discussions about students' progress in academics, behavior, and co-curricular areas.

The meeting provided valuable insights into each child's learning journey, allowing teachers and parents to work together for better outcomes. Positive feedback from parents encouraged the teaching staff, while teachers shared personalized suggestions for home-based learning support. The PTM reinforced the school's belief that strong collaboration between home and school leads to holistic development and lifelong learning.

Rhythms of Devotion: Garba Celebration for Primary Students

26th September 2025 / Classes: LKG J to 6th

The festive spirit of Navratri was celebrated through a colorful and lively Garba Celebration. The event began with a divine Chaitanya Jhanki and Mahaa-Arti, where students and their Parents prayed together for blessings and prosperity. Dressed in vibrant traditional outfits, the young learners then performed graceful Garba dances, filling the campus with energy and devotion.

Parents were delighted to witness the enthusiasm and coordination of their children. The rhythmic beats and cheerful twirls created a mesmerizing atmosphere. The event not only showcased cultural richness but also taught children the values of faith, joy, and teamwork.

Together for Growth: PTM for Classes 3 to 11

27th September 2025 | Classes: 3 to 11

The Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM) for classes 3 to 11 was successfully conducted after the Term I/Half-Yearly Examinations. The meeting served as a platform to discuss each student's academic performance, strengths, and areas for improvement.

Parents appreciated the hard work of teachers and shared valuable suggestions to enhance student learning. Teachers provided individual feedback, fostering mutual understanding and support.

The PTM reaffirmed the school's commitment to collaborative education, ensuring that every student receives guidance tailored to their potential. It was indeed a fruitful day of reflection and progress.

Garba Fest 2025: A Night of Music, Dance, and Devotion

27th September 2025 | Classes: 7th to 12th

The much-awaited Garba Fest 2025 for senior students was a grand success! The evening began with melodious Jasgeet and Pachrageet performances, followed by an energetic Garba dance that filled the courtyard with rhythm and excitement.

Students looked stunning in their traditional attire and danced gracefully to the beats of dandiya music. The fest provided a joyful platform for students to express their talent, celebrate culture, and strengthen friendships. Teachers and students alike participated wholeheartedly, creating an atmosphere of unity and festivity. The event beautifully concluded the month of September, leaving everyone with smiles and cherished memories.
